

Aventuras de Monos

Bebé Mona
abraza a su
mamá.

Acaba de despertarse de una siesta.

A Bebé Mona le gusta andar en la espalda de su mamá. Dan una vuelta.

Van a buscar a los hermanos de Bebé Mona.

A Bebé Mona le gusta
mirarlos jugando en las rocas.

Sus hermanos
están escalando
las rocas.

¡La hermana de Bebé Mona le jala la cola a su hermano!

¡Creo que a él no le gustó eso!

Él le dice, "Por favor no me hagas eso otra vez."

Pues, quizás no dijo por favor...

¡Ya es la hora de jugar! Se jalan las colas y se empujan las caras cuando juegan.

A los hermanos de Bebé Mona les gusta jugar mucho.

La mamá solo mira.

Sabe que sólo
están jugando y
que todo va a estar bien.

The Mustard Seed Books project uses an open-source, Wikipedia-type strategy, leveraging public expertise to create and refine a set of high-quality books that support early reading development. All of the books and pictures are covered by the Creative Commons License (<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-sa/3.0/>) and are free to print, distribute, and modify for personal or educational use. The books are available at www.mustardseedbooks.org. New titles appear on a regular basis. If you have any ideas for books or would like to leave us any feedback, contact rick@mustardseedbooks.org.

Photos for these books come primarily from Flickr (www.flickr.com) and the Morgue File (www.morguefile.com). Both sites are great resources for high-quality publicly accessible photos and for aspiring photographers looking to share their work. Our aim with this series of books is to weave together two significant goals in the design of early reading materials—that the books are both instructional and engaging. Books designed to develop reading skills often end up feeling like work to read, while books designed to be interesting are often too difficult for beginning readers.

These books for beginning readers support phonics-based classroom instruction by including a high concentration of phonetically regular words, as well as the most commonly used sight words. However, the books are written using pictures and stories that make sense and promote both language and conceptual development. The books encourage questions, conversations and thoughtful engagement, aiming towards the new common core standards. Our intent is to produce books that kids want to read, think about, talk about and read again.
